

Farewell Guide

In the tender moments of saying goodbye to a beloved pet, we share in the deep emotions and understand the challenges that come with such a loss – and we are here to help.

This planner serves as a guide for you, ensuring that you know what to do when the time comes.

Farewell Guide - a helpful checklist

Which CPC location is closest to you?

How are you getting your pet to the crematorium?

- Via my veterinary practice
- Having them collected from home
- Bringing them in to the crematorium myself

Choose the type of cremation you'd like your pet to have:

- Individual - not attended
- Individual - attended
- Communal

If individual, what would you like to happen to the ashes?

- Return them to me
- Return them to me in an urn
- Scatter them in the Garden of Remembrance
- Other: -----

How would you like your pet to be remembered?

- I'll write an online tribute on the CPC website
- I'll complete a page for the Book of Remembrance, which our team can add to the CPC website
- Other: -----

Is there a particular location that holds sentimental value to your and your pet, that could serve as a memorial site? You can scatter their ashes here, or simply go there to reflect.

Would you like a keepsake to honour your pet with? Please see our online shop on our website for various options, from plaques to jewellery.

Over 40 years of providing dignified pet cremation services

At CPC cares, we have been providing dignified pet cremations for over four decades.

Our expert advisory team, spread across multiple UK locations, is dedicated to ensuring a proper and fitting farewell for your treasured companions.

Get in touch with CPC:

Email: info@cpccares.com
Tel: 01763 207700

